File No. of 194 | General and Revenue Secretariat

Serial No.

U.O.No. 25/45-46. Dated, Bangalore, the 8th Feb. 1946.

Retransmitted with compliments:-

5) The District Board wants permission of the Govt for organising a regular cattle fair annually in connection with the Car Festival of Sri Veerabhadraswami at Gama village in Shikarpur Taluk, which is said to offer accommodation and good water supply. It is said that the festival attracts a large number of devotees and a good gathering of cattle from the surrounding villages. The local officers and the Deputy Commissioner are also said to be in favour of including this among the official cattle fairs held in the State every year.

6) Under these circumstances permission may be accorded to organise an annual cattle fair in connection with the Car Festival of Sri Veerabhadraswami at Gama Village, commencing from next year, subject to the conditions governing the holding of cattle fairs generally in the State.
